Community School of Music and Art present "Musical Trains" with stories, songs, and crafts

The Community School of Music and Art visited the Los Altos Library for a special "Musical Trains" performance for toddlers and preschoolers. Over 160 children and caregivers enjoyed singing along and taking home a special train craft.

Friday August 29, 2014

Los Altos State Street Green Pop-Up Park

Children's librarians visited downtown Los Altos to present stories, songs, and a craft at the State Street Green Pop-Up park. Children and adults enjoyed making their own puppet during the craft activity.

No photos available. These book clubs will repeat in October.

Wednesday September 16
Thursday September 17

Book Clubs

Los Altos hosted 2 book clubs for children. On Wednesday 9/16, children in grades 2 and 3 enjoyed the Book Bugs Club by reading and discussing "The Case of the Lost Boy" by Dori Butler.

Children in grades 4-6 enjoyed the Cool Kids Read Book Club by reading and discussing "Turtle in Paradise" by Jennifer Holm.

WOODLAND

Rhythm, Rattle, and Rock

Thursday August 28, 2014

Children enjoyed singing and dancing to music at this interactive program. While using scarves, bells, and pom-poms, children had the opportunity to enjoy a variety of songs and activities.
